

Bon Jovi, These Open Arms

What if everything u always took 4 granted, was gone and everything u ever thought was right, was wrong and what if everyone u ever loved was torn, from the pages of ur life would u reach out 4 2morrow, or try 2 turn back time these open arms will wait 4u these open arms can pull us through between whats left and left 2 do

these open arms
these open arms
these open arms will wait 4u

did u really love the ones u said u loved, thats right and did u make a damn of difference in somebody elses life tell me, is there someone u can count on when u need a friend can u see i need a friend

these open arms can pull us through
these open arms
these open arms
these open arms will wait 4u

can u lend me ur skin, walk in ur own shoes u cant win, if u dont know how 2 lose crawl, fall, jonny gotta learn 2 fly

these open arms can pull us through
these open arms
these open arms
these open arms
these open arms
