

Bone Thugs-N-Harmony, War(Battlecry Remix)

Absolutely, absolutely, absolutely, absolutely nothin', nothin', nothin'...

War, war, war, war, war...

What is it good for?

Absolutely nothin', nothin', nothin', nothin'...

[Layzie]

We be the mighty mighty warriors [warriors]

on the rise [on the rise]

thug (censored) to my battle cries

Warriors [warriors] on the rise [on the rise]

[Time to die.] Thug (censored) [Time to die.]

you better be ready for war. It's almost here--nineteen ninety-nine

Could it be the endin', new millenium?

Sendin' them soldiers out to die, then they ride for the cause

screamin' (censored) we muggin', givin' no lovin' to these fake-ass laws

Mo Thuggin'. If you need to be prepared pump your strap up in the air

Let em' all loose if you ain't scared

Shoot 'em up, if ya don't care. Yeah!

And I go to war for two thangs: challenge me

I want my (censored) cheese, my (censored) family

Understand me: I ain't tryin' to tell you war ain't the lick

but in the streets, you need your heat

or get your wig split

Strategize, mental mind, and timin' it perfect on the attack

Throw distraction in the front

come with the dumpin' from the back. Yeah!

War, war, war, war, war...

What is it good for?

Absolutely nothin', nothin', nothin', nothin'...

One, two, three, four...

Ride, ride, ride, ride

We're ready to pull out and ride, ride, ride, ride...

Ready . . . You're dead.

[Flesh]

I'm comin' to test you (censored) fate

See how many of y'all are prepared for Armageddon

should it be Judgement Day, still it's a big mistake

How many have been face to face with death before?

Tell me, how does it feel? Real nervous?

'Cause everybody's ready to kill if it's my will Safe outta my battle

Quit lookin' or I might have to smoke you

when I roast you with this beam

Focus you through my scope, mo murdered

Mighty, mighty warriors

some of the mighty, mighty trues still on the rise

If you wanna test, you die

Then, I might make the news

We stompin' in steel-toed boots and suited up in fatigues

killin' a few (censored), army throw up the white flag and retreat

So many soldiers, so many stories of war

But what is it good for?

Nobody knows, and what if the world is over in two triple zero?

War, war, war, war, war...

What is it good for? Absolutely nothin', nothin', nothin', nothin'...

[Wish]

If thangs don't change, I think we all gon' die

Who's to say they wrong or right?
You pushin' the button, not I, but we die
that's why I'm gatherin' up my soldiers [soldiers]
Mo Thug, mine are prepared for war because it's over [over]
Red light, red light, red light, ride or die
It's gon' be casualties. So be ready to ride
And say it again: there's gon' be casualties so be ready to ride. And I got your back [back, back, back] if it goes like that [that, that, that] Mo Thug ready to ride, if it goes like that and we all get papped, papped, papped. Yeah, yeah.

War, war, war, war, war...
What is it good for?
Absolutely nothin', nothin', nothin', nothin...
