

BONES UK, Cheap Love

War wounds
Wild nights cat fights
scratched eyes
looking for a little love

Drown it Down it
Bury it
Burn it
Looking for a little love

weekend rockstars burying icons
looking for a little love

I dont like to dance without you looking for a little love

Uh uh uh uh uh uh oh
And you give what you got but its darker than you thought now
Uh uh uh uh uh uh oh
And the birds dont sing anything thats sweet now
Uh uh uh uh uh uh oh
And its dark outside but dont be dark in you
Uh uh uh uh uh uh oh
Uh uh uh uh uh uh oh

Green eyes
Green glass bottle green reptile
looking for a little love

Chin up
Chin down
Chewing gun
Heavy town
looking for a little love

Hugs from thugs and making out with murderers looking for a little love

Well dressed robots selling us cheap love
Price of a little light

Feels like everything that mattered doesnt matter anymore anything that mattered doesnt matter
Feels like everything that mattered doesnt matter anymore anything that mattered doesnt matter
Feels like everything that mattered doesnt matter anymore anything that mattered doesnt matter
Feels like everything that mattered doesnt matter anymore anything that mattered doesnt matter

And your doing what you can but its harder than you planed now
And its tough to find anywhere soft to land now
And its dark outside but dont be dark in you
