

Bonfire, Down And Out

I come home and I find you gone
Walk up the stairs and you're lying in another man's arms, oh yeah
You woke me up in the middle of a dream
I always thought that this would never happen to me
Wow no

This heart ... shot down ... like a bullet without a sound
Jump back, get outta my way, yeah

Down and out - 'Cos my heart's on fire but I'm still not burning
Down and out - And you know I'm coming back again, yeah

Sweet talk, try to justify, I know you by now
That your love was only a lie
I'm going back, gonna take control
Put the money on the table 'cos my heart has taken its toll
Oh yeah

You make love, it's my turn
You can feel it when it starts to burn
This time ... you're on your own
Baby

Down and out - 'Cos my heart's on fire but I'm still not burning
Down and out - And you know I'm coming back again, yeah
Down and out - So life goes on and the world keeps turning
Down and out - And you know I'm coming back to win

So down

Down and out - 'Cos my heart's on fire but I'm still not burning
Down and out - And you know I'm coming back again, yeah
Down and out - So life goes on and the world keeps turning
Down and out - And you know I'm coming back to win
So down
