

Bonfire, Freedom Is My Belief

I'm an under cover outlaw
Just doing time
In a 5 day prison
For two bucks and a dime

48 hours
And I'll be riding free
On a horse of steel
That's where I'll be

Heyo - I'm doing alright
- Rolling down the highway at the speed of light
Heyo - gonna give 'em hell
- through thunder and lightning

What does it take to live
Under clear blue skies
Freedom you're my belief
For you I'd die

I'm searching for adventures
Not your plastic flair
Some Heavy Metal Thunder
I don't have a care

My wheels don't get tired
They eat another mile
Riding through the fire
That's my kinda style

Heyo - I'm doing alright
- Two wheel pirate ready to strike
Heyo - gonna give 'em hell
- through thunder and lightning

What does it take to live
Under clear blue skies
Freedom you're my belief
For you I'd die

What does it take to live
Under clear blue skies
Freedom you're my belief
For you I'd die

What does it take to live
Under clear blue skies
Freedom you're my belief
For you I'd die
