

Bonfire Pickets, Over Excitement

I've got an inner turmoil
I got it from my mother's side
And I've got a raging temper
I got it from my Father's side
And I've been building up the tension
For a number of weekends now
And I've been looking for salvation
For a record number of weekends now

Don't you, understand?
Won't you, understand?

Don't you piss me off
Coz I'm a little over excited now x4

Now my raging temper
Is spilling up over the brow
And my inner turmoil
Has got on the outside somehow

But don't you, understand?
Why won't you, understand?

Don't you piss me off
Coz I'm a little over excited now x4
