

Bonfire, Rebel Pride

I've got a rebel soul - no one ever will own There's a rebel flag - waving over my home I got a rebel mind - 'cause I wanna be free so you don't better mess with me

I got a rebel pride - I'm a southern man I ride a rebel bike - sure ain't made in Japan I love this rebel song - "Sweet Home Alabama" and I'm sure ya'll understand

I would fight for my rights
'nd stand up for my dream
I would die for you baby - my little rebel queen

CHORUS

I'm a rebel - a rebel for your love a rebel for our freedom in a world that's getting rough I'm a rebel - with a rebel dixie soul a rebel for my (our) children who say "Long Live Rock'n'Roll";

I got a rebel heart - with a beat of Rock'n'Roll and the rebel yell - is the echo of my soul and a rebels truth - is the courage to say Beat it - I don't like it that way

Well I've seen a lot of places where I would never build my house I just love to hear the girls talk with a mouth full of south
