

Bonfire, Take My Heart And Run

Tears fall like rain, can't you see them
They keep me from closing my eyes
Wounds always heal,
Though they're bleeding
Sometimes we just need to cry

Don't tell me you're leaving,
Don't call it destiny
Desperate sometimes,
But now I've found my paradise

CHORUS

Take my heart and run, 'til the end of time
Love's forever young, in this heart of mine
I don't know, where we're going
But I put my faith in you...
Just take my heart and run...Just take it and run

Love's not a game of denial
You're playing for keeps every time
I keep on thinking it's my turn
And you're gonna tell me you're mine

Don't tell me you're leaving,
Don't call it destiny
Some desperate sometimes,
But now I've found my paradise

CHORUS

To wake up alone, it can't be right
You played the game, I paid the price
Desperate sometimes, but now we've found
Our paradise

Take my heart and run, 'til the end of time
Love's forever young, in this heart of mine
