

Bonfire, The Price Of Loving You

running for her something looking for someone that's why I needed you so badly searching such a long time you head on me life lie then you hurt me like a hammer woooooooooooo

I can't take it anymore
I can't live with you I'm without you It's the price of loving you I don't know the fake on me truth
I'm being the price of loving you All I know is that I want you
I want youuuuuuuuu

Signed baby you brake me
You play with my witness devil just like an angel you tast just like heaven

But your love is poison
No, my damn baby
