

Bonfire, Who's Foolin' Who

Sometimes you get lost in the world
And get out of touch with your heart
Then one day you wake up
Did we drift to far apart

Are we going to pick up the pieces
Or just wait until our lease is up
What about all the things we lived for
No one wins if we walk on out that door

Who's foolin' who
If we don't stay together we're fooling ourselves
Who's foolin' who
Without you girl it's a living hell

All caught up, all worn out
This prison doesn't change
We've got to talk, spell it out
Before it is just too late

All the times I didn't see
Even when you cried in front of me
How could I think that I didn't need you
How could you think that I'd ever be untrue

Are we going to pick up the pieces
Or just wait until our lease is up

Who's foolin' who
If we don't stay together we're fooling ourselves
Who's foolin' who
Without you girl it's a living hell
