

Bonkers, Chain Of Pearls

Because you care for me
When I am weak and down and out
You let me lean on you, let me rage and shout
I'm letting it out
These pearls are for you
Love me little, love me long
Hold me tight now, make me strong
This chain of pearls from my eyes in love for you
Because you give me a touch
When I really don't deserve one
You take and hold my hand
I've done you wrong
I'm letting it out
These pearls are for you
Love me little, love me long
Hold me tight now, make me strong
This chain of pearls from my eyes in love for you
This chain of pearls from my eyes in love for you
