

Bonnie Bianco, If I Once Fall In Love

I know my heart is crying
Crying out for something more
Can't hide my fears in knowing
I may live but never be loved
I don't want to be fooled or a prisoner of love
I don't want to be standing alone
If I once fall in love, it will be, will be forever
With someone who I believe in
A one on one perfect love
If I once fall in love, it will be, will be forever
With someone who's thinking of me
A one on one perfect love, perfect love
I hear the voices calling
Calling out my life's pain
I'm drowning through my innocence
Only time can turn the page
How I want to be loved for the person I am
I don't want to be dreaming alone
So if I once fall in love, it will be, will be forever
With someone who I can trust in
A one on one perfect love
If I once fall in love, it will be, will be forever
With someone who's dreaming of me
A one on one perfect love, perfect love
If I once fall in love, it will be, the one forever
With someone who's thinking of me
A one on one perfect love
If I once fall in love, it will be, will be forever
With someone I could believe in
A one on one perfect love, perfect love
A perfect love, a perfect love, a perfect love
Perfect love
