

Bonnie Owens, Any Part Of You

I'm happy when you're happy and I cry each time you're sad
It fills my life completely when you hold my hand
The greatest things I've ever seen is anything you do
And I'm so happy just to be any part of you
Any part of you is all I ever want to be anything you'll ask of me I'll do it willingly
For you're the keeper of the key that makes my dreams come true
And I'm so happy just to be any part of you
[ steel ]
The greatest things I've ever seen is anything you do
And I'm so happy just to be any part of you
