

Bonnie Owens, I'll Kiss My Wedding Ring Tonight

I don't know just how it started once we were happy but now it's gone
You don't bother comin' home at night and I'd rather be free than be alone
So I'll kiss my wedding vows goodbye
And all those nights with nothing else to do but cry
You don't want me and I'll swear I don't know why
So I'll kiss my wedding ring goodbye
[steel]
Life's too short to be unhappy and the world is full of charmin' men
I love you but when love is onesided each day it gets harder to pretend
So I'll kiss my wedding vows goodbye...
I'll kiss my wedding ring goodbye
