

Bonnie Owens, I'll Look Over You

I'll look over things you do because I love you so
I'll be standing on the sideline while you play
Oh it hurts to see you stare at every girl you see
But I'll look over you if you'll just let me stay

It's no fault of yours if I can't give the thrill you need
But I know someday you'll find someone who can
Oh it hurts to see you stare at every girl you see
But I'll look over you and try to understand
I'll look over things you do...
I'll look over you if you'll just let me stay
