

Bonnie Owens, I Won't Go Lookin' For You

I won't go lookin' for you tonight I'd rather stay here at home
Than to see you holdin' her so tight in your arms where I belong
I followed you so many times to the places where you go
I watch you kiss her secretly while the lights're turned down low
I thought that if I see you holdin' another I can find someone too
I get lots of chances but I don't even bother cause I'm too busy missin' you
So I won't go looking for you tonight I'll wait till you come in
And when it's me that's holdin' you I know you're mine again
[ steel - dobro ]
I thought that if I see you holdin' another...
