

Bonnie Owens, It Don't Take Much To Make Me Cry

Excuse the tears that are fallin' down my face
Each teardrop falls then another takes its place
I hadn't planned to cry today but it seems like I been turned out that way
But then it don't take much to make me cry all he did was say goodbye
He didn't even stopped to tell me why but then it don't take much to make me cry
[ guitar - steel ]
I didn't start to cryin' right at first but then would you believe things got worse
That's when I knew it was the very end he walked out the door with my best friend
But then it don't take much...
[ guitar - steel ]
It don't take much...
Oh no it don't take much to make me cry
