

Bonnie Owens, Tonight I'll Throw A Party

You're at a business meeting that's what you think I believe
But to you life's one day party and it's always you who's here
Let's someone throw a party you go and leave me home
Tonight I'll throw a party of my own
Yes tonight I'll throw a party of my own
And mind will start the minute you'll come home
I'll have the lights all burning bright and then at three or four Tonight I'll throw a party out the door
[guitar]
I don't care what the neighbors hear or what the neighbors see
They'll know the morning after a good time was had by me
This party that I'm throwing won't be quiet won't be small
But he'll be the biggest loudest one of all
Yes tonight I'll throw a party...
Yes tonight I'll throw a party out the door
