

Bonnie Pink, Hickey Hickey

Hickey Hickey on my eyelid won't disappear
deepen deepen love like bruise
won't disappear

There's nothing to deny with you, the way you are I sigh for nothing and just realize how much I love you baby

Hickey Hickey on my eyelid
won't disappear
deepen deepen love like bruise
won't disappear

It isn't any fun without you, no more adieu My teddy bear is free from care, while I am having an awful nightmare unraveling my tangled phrase is tough, you always laugh something's lacking in these flapjacks But I will fill the gap with tears 'cause you said that you need no perfection

Hickey Hickey on my eyelid (tough, you always laugh) Hickey Hickey on my eyelid (true, no more adieu) just like in drama
I hope it's a happy end you know like you get together in the very end no more goodbyes you'll be together forever well, I'm not asking for anything spectacular but this is my drama my own drama
