

Bonnie Pink, Sweet

It's so sweet that you keep them on the sidelines
It's so sweet that you cannot say good-bye to any one of them
It's so sweet that you like my wound with mustard
You're so sweet
But is it sweet?

Is it sweet? Is it sweet? Is it sweet?
Oh you're so sweet
Damn sweet

It's so sweet that you gave them a piece of you
It's so sweet that you have to please everybody
It's so sweet that I'm the biggest secret of your life
You're so sweet
But is it sweet?

Is it sweet? Is it sweet? Is it sweet?
Oh you're so sweet
Damn sweet

Stop saying to me that I don't understand
I'm watching all your motions that people wouldn't find
I caught your weakness which you wouldn't confess
But what I want is the true sweetness that doesn't lose my faith

Damn, damn, damn, damn sweet
You're damn sweet
But that's not what I want
That's not the kind
How can I love?
How can I love your damn sweetness?
How can I love?
