

Bonnie 'Prince' Billy, Nomadic Revery (All Around)

today was one where, lost in thought I really feel I am losing not an ounce of what you see in me, my lamb

if you're not with me tomorrow that would be the worst I'm glad I dream of what I dream of today a thing was burst

o all around
o all around
it's kept together moving all around my brain it beams, it's here at all and living, I must work to make our lives here justified and not let trouble lurk instead of seeing monkeys biting I lay on the ground while my hectic travelling partner wandered all around

chorus

o all around a left buttock and all around a right all around your every curve I'm going to go tonight but only hold me, hold me all the city's on me and all their wish to scold me and lay their hands upon me so only hold me, hold me and I'll return't you baby I just need an evening with someone nice to hide me
