

Bonnie Raitt, (goin') Wild For You Baby

Struck by the moon, rising too soon
I feel a pain deep inside me
Cold northern winds, a fist in my chin
Makin' me wild for you, baby
What can I do to get back to you
I'm feelin' desperate and lonely
The city's a river of cold misery
Makin' me wild for you, babe
I'm down on my knees
Hear me cry for you, baby
Cold misery, I would die for you, baby
I pray you will see, these tears I cry
Nights I can't sleep, my tears are cheap
I'm losin' hold of my senses
I can't contain all of this pain
And it's makin' me wild for you, baby
I'm down on my knees
Hear me cry for you, baby
Cold misery, I would die for you, baby
I pray you will see, these tears I cry
I'm down on my knees
Hear me cry for you, baby
Cold misery, I would die for you, baby
I pray you will see, these tears I cry
Goin' wild for you, baby, hear me cry
And I got to cry, sometime alone
And I got to cry, sometime
And there's no reason at all
'Cause you're makin' me so wild for you, baby
Baby, goin' wild for you, baby
Hear me cry, baby
Goin' wild, goin' wild at you, baby
And you are makin' me cry for you, baby
