Bonnie Tyler, It's Over

Your baby doesn't love you anymore

Golden days before they end, Whisper secrets to the wind Your baby won't be near you anymore.

Tender nights before they fly And falling stars that seem to cry Your baby doesn't want you anymore It's over.

It breaks your heart in two
To know she's been untrue
But, oh what will you do?
When she says to you there's someone new
We're through, we're through.

It's over It's over It's over

All the rainbows in the sky Start to weep and say goodbye You won't be seeing rainbows anymore.

Setting suns before they fall They come to you. That's all, that's all But you'll see lonely sunsets after all.

It's over, It's over, it's over It's over
