Bonnie Tyler, Limelight

(Alan Parsons & amp; Eric Woolfson)

I can see the glow Of the distant sun I can feel it inside Maybe this day Could be the one

I can hear the roar Of the distant crowd They are waiting for me Calling my name Shouting out loud

Limelight You were all I ever wanted, since it all began Limelight Shining on me, telling the world who I am Oh, Limelight Don't let me slip right through you fingers There's along way to fall After all the years of waiting I'm going to show them all

I can see the world In a different light Now it's easy to say Where I went wrong What I did right Holding on isn't always easy I am gonna change my mind

Limelight You were all I ever wanted, since it all began Limelight Shining on me, telling the world who I am Oh, Limelight Don't let me slip right through you fingers There's along way to fall

Limelight You were all I ever wanted, since it all began Limelight Shining on me, telling the world who I am Yeah, Limelight Don't let me slip right through you fingers There's along way to fall

Maybe the road's not easy I'm gonna show them all
