

Boo Radleys, Blue Room In Archway

Feels so much colder, now you're away
Blue room in Archway
Searchin all the places you could be
And I can feel your ghost over me
Four walls ultra marine
Lock myself away
Blue room in Archway
Searchin all the places you could be
And I can feel your ghost over me
And it's hard to define my reasons
For hiding away
Cursing the day when I leave
Can't you read the sign on my window
Why don't you leave me alone
Blue room in Archway
