Boo Radleys, Blue Room In Archway

Feels so much colder, now you're away Blue room in Archway
Searchin all the places you could be And I can feel your ghost over me Four walls ultra marine
Lock myself away
Blue room in Archway
Searchin all the places you could be And I can feel your ghost over me And it's hard to define my reasons For hiding away
Cursing the day when I leave
Can't you read the sign on my window Why don't you leave me alone
Blue room in Archway
