

Boom Boom Satellites, Moment I Count

got my back on the wall there's nothing in my way i know it's gonna be alright evil is what i am
every moment
i count down
every moment
i count down
every moment
i count down

sinful rhythm
in my mind
i'm on my way
back home
you make me wanna
pack my backs
but still you're
waving your flags
every moment
i count down
every moment
i count down
every moment
i count down

every moment
i count down
every moment
i count down
