

Boomkat, Know Me

Prepare to fight

I've slaved too long to be where I am
Won't let any man into my land
But if you know my secrets
And you still want me
You must be special
So prove it to me

'Cause breaking down these walls is a task at hand
If you have the strength then I'll demand
That you and me
We take some time
And get to know each other
Then I might make you mine

'Cause I've got a plan
For the twos of us
We gonna walk around
Until it's dusk
And then I'll tell ya all my secrets
Before we crush
So that you know me, know me

It may take some time
To get me in bed
And when ya do
I might leave ya dead (oh shit)
Better bring your armor
And prepare to fight
No pussies allowed
When this girl ignites

Now I've got a plan
For the twos of us
We're gonna get it on
Until it's dusk
And then I'll tell ya all my secrets
Before we crush
So that you know me, know me

Oh, I've waited some time to say this
But it's something I feel inside, yeah
We're gonna both fall down so low, I don't clown around

I've got a plan
For the twos of us
We're gonna get it on
Until it's dusk
And then I'll tell ya all my secrets
'Cause it's a must
So that you know me, know me

Now I've got a plan
For the twos of us
Until it's dusk
And then I'll tell ya all my secrets
Before we crush
So that you know me, know me, for real

Know me, know me, know me, baby
Know me, know me, ya better know
Know me, know me, know me, baby

Know me, know me, for real
