

Boot Camp Clik, So Focused

(Hook-Buckshot)

Opposites attract

So you can fall back if you think you all that, miss

It's about that time

On the street, with the hustle, everyday I'm about that grind

So you can play the side, 'cause I'ma get mine

I don't wait up and I don't waste time

But I notice, I roll with

My head up when I walk, so I stay Focused

(Verse 1-Starang Wondah)

Hey yo, I usually ain't into chasin' the mommy's

Get it then I hit it like Jason Giambi

Until I met Wendy up in Envy

She had a coupe and a Bentley, the inside Fendi

Hey yo, she friendly, far from your average groupie

The hoochie ate sushi and kept her coochie in Gucci

I knew she was checkin' me out

Then locked in her sight, she never lettin' me out

We parkin' lot pimpin', frontin' on a celly

Mesmerized by the tattoo on her belly

I came with Sean P, she came with Tawana

You shoulda seen those ho's ass in these Dolce Gabbana's

And there's somethin' about her, made me shake the ho's off

And I ain't touch her, but I could tell she was so soft

And I seen baller's tryin' to floss to show off

Now I'm like Biz Mark', about to 'Go Off'

They hit the dance floor, dancin' to Chingy

Dressed up kinky, movin' all freaky

Hey yo, I like the way she shake it 'Right Thurr'

Dancin' in the mirror, playin' with her hair

She tried to act like she didn't notice me stare, man

I walked up to her like I ain't care

Made eye contact, I knew I had a chance

When we danced, the hooker put her hands in my pants

I'm So Focused...

(Verse 2-Buckshot)

It's hard enough tryin' to get by

What's the reason we gotta look fly?

Shorty said that she did 'til the day that I cry

Then she looked to the side when that nigga walk by

She said she want some wisdom

Then the SL came and she felt wind come

Income will show the outcome

And if you get it, then you lose it, well nigga, you're outdone

How come? I think she make the best salesman

'Cause she can sell men anything for that tail end

Girlfriend, a nigga will spend what he have to

For that ass, too, fuck around and spend his last two

Let me ask you, you ever got some nigga

Who found out through some gossip nigga his pocket's hit up

Damn, you see how bitches think

That's why I'm runnin' like my kitchen sink

I don't blink, I'm So Focused

(Verse 3-Steele)

I wake up in the mornin', give thanks for the moment

Plan, plot, strategize, keep my third eye focused

Watch for the rodents

Silence the cold when the police approachin'

Livin' my life as a soldier

Just like roller coaster, all that glitters ain't golden

Keep toast when I'm posted, don't boast 'bout what I'm holdin'

I keep fam close, enemies even closer

(Verse 4-Tek)

I'm seen in these streets on the daily

Snuffin' you underneath the sun, you can tell me

About what's the opposite sex, what's poppin' on the set

You couldn't get it so you needed my connect

You ain't look for the shit I went through

Don't worry 'bout it, when you seem him, tell him that I sent you

And please don't use my name in vein

I'm so focused, daddy, I'm on top of my game
