

Booth And The Bad Angel, Butterfly's Dream

Drag my lips across these mouths
Drap my hips across this crowd
Curiosity knows no bounds
I'd love to sleep
With the whole town

Caught between these steaming sheets
I made my bed
And now she waits
Full of hopes and future plans
While I just hoped for one night stands
Don't make her sound oh no
Don't make her sound oh no
Don't make her sound oh no oh no

The trick is not to be so nice
If I wasn't rich they wouldn't look at me twice
While kissing her I want her sister
Is there no end to my desire
Pledge true love
Tenderly hold her
All the time looking over her shoulder
Don't make her sound oh no
Don't make her sound oh no
Don't make her sound oh no oh no

Endless hunger endless guile
She'll be waiting with that smile
Endless hunger endless guile
She will rock you like a child

Mayday oh my
I'm the one to make you cry
Mayday it's all gone wrong
I turn around and now she's gone
Mayday oh my
I'm the one to make you cry
Mayday, what do you know
One comes, the other goes

The creature's out to prowl around
The mob are out to track him down.
They drive him on, or does he lead out of their dreams and into his
No way back to solid ground.
Out of their dream and into his.

Endless hunger endless guile
She'll be waiting with that smile
Endless hunger endless guile
She will rock you like a child
She will rock you like a child
She will rock you like a child

Butterfly dreams
Butterfly dreams
Butterfly dreams
Butterfly dreams
Butterfly dreams
Butterfly dreams
Butterfly dreams

Mayday oh my
I'm the one to make you cry
Mayday it's all gone wrong

I turn around and now she's gone
Mayday oh my
I'm the one to make you cry
Mayday, what do you know
One comes, the other goes
Mayday oh my
I'm the one to make you cry
Mayday it's all gone wrong
I turn around and now she's gone
Mayday oh my
I'm the one to make you cry
Mayday, what do you know
One comes, the other goes
Mayday
Mayday
Mayday
Mayday
