

Boris Dlugosch feat. Roisin Murphy, Look Around

I can see a sky in the place where we have been
I can see it all now, our friends are all there
I close my eyes and I know that you're actually with me.
I'm going in, I'm going into the dreams, baby
Is it as real as it feels.

No, no, don't turn back
Can't just turn around
Can I hear the sound
With my heart beating faster?

I go anywhere to find you
Any place beside you
I stay right where I found you
I look around me.
I go anywhere to find you
Any place beside you
I stay right where I found you
I look around me.
Guess it's just a stuntery

We're not apart
No, we're just a part of an escape
I can see it all now!

I go anywhere to find you
Any place beside you
I stay right where I found you
I look around me.
/2x

Imagining the landscape
I can see it all night
We were dancing in the devil line
Feels like pam-pam-para-papa

I go anywhere to find you
Any place beside you
I stay right where I found you
I look around me.
I go anywhere to find you
Any place beside you
I stay right where I found you
I look around me.
Guess it's just a stuntery
