

Boris Dlugosch feat. Roisin Murphy, Never Enough

Do you belong to what you're hanging on to?
Are you caught in a loop?
What is wrong with you?
You keep making do
Have you given up on hope?
I could be your antidote
Are you lost in a state of anxiety?
Just let it be
Excuse me, please
I'm just so happy I could scream
Adjust your mindset, do the same
All that you lost will be regained
Never ever enough, its never enough
Is it ever enough, when its just enough?
If its never enough, why do we hang up on love?
Enough is enough, never enough
Never ever enough, its never enough
Is it ever enough, when its just enough?
If its never enough, why do we hang up on hope?
Enough is enough, never enough
Pure, we're pure as we're driven
But I know there's only one way to go
So dream, its just human kindness
If we run and we hide it will find us, theres nowhere to go
Excuse me please
I'm just so happy I could scream
Adjust your mindset, do the same
All that you lost will be regained
Never ever enough, it's never enough
Is it ever enough, when its just enough?
If it's never enough, why do we hang up on love?
Enough is enough, never enough
Never ever enough, it's never enough
Is it ever enough, when it's just enough?
If it's never enough, why do we hang up on love?
Enough is enough, never enough
I came forth to rest your fear
There to catch your falling tears
Begin and ending no more pretending
Try descending into me
When it comes to say goodbye
Say your final end desire
Well, enough is enough and youre hung up
Feel what you feel, baby
Never ever enough, it's never enough
Is it ever enough, when it's just enough?
If it's never enough, why do we hang up on love?
Enough is enough, never enough
