

Born Of Osiris, Open Arms To Damnation

Day by day, let's pave the path to escape
Pave the tragic endings passed away
Bring forth sincerity, bring forth the change
This portrait of dishonesty will be slain
I will not hold back
I will not regret
I won't hold back
I won't regret
This place I now call home is nothing more than a fallacy
Nothing more than a fallacy
This is not my home
You've got a one way ticket to hell with open arms to damnation
