

Bouncing Souls, All Of This And Nothing

They try to tell you how things should be, how to think, what to wear and what bands to see. Know your enemy.
Revolution on tv that's a bunch of shit to me they don't know about you or me.
Know your enemy. They don't know about you or me no matter what they say to be they don't know about you or me the contradictions and hypocrisy they don't know about you or me.. know your enemy. They don't know about you or me no matter what they say to be they don't know about you or me.
