Bouncing Souls, Bryans Lament

Sat back and i light a cigarette these pictures of you in my head i feel like shit and my eyes are burning but still, i just can't go to bed whiskey nights and missed mornings still these pictures of you in my head i drown myself ten feet deep tonight remembering things we said moments get stuck in my brain in my blue skies and my rain you are so beautiful to me i can't wait to see you again x3

here comes that old pain again i can't see far i'm looking up at the stars the pain starts with the sunrise and pictures of you in my head...
