

Bouncing Souls, Single Successful Guy

i'm beatin' down doors stumbling down the street dialing the telephone.
Up all night up all morning right here is my home.
But i know i don't even have to try i'm a single sucessful guy lonely with my friends lonely with my favorite girl
lonely when i'm all alone
if you're gonna talk i gotta listen because right here is my home
it's easy i don't have to try i'm a single sucessful guy.
My ears are ringin loud but i can't hear a sound.
I'm carrying all i own and my heart is heavy in my chest.
Right here is my home its easy i don't have to try i'm a single sucessful guy
