

Bowling For Soup, Captain Hook

She looks at me and my world stops
I have got to let her know, before she has to go.
And I hope she does not confront me.
Cause I might never find the words I've got in mind.

And I don't know
No, I don't know what to say when I'm around you
And I, I don't know just what to do.
You must know the way I feel by the way I'm acting.
Yeah you know, I'm so crazy,
I'm so crazy about you.

She tries to catch me, I won't stop
She grabs me by the hand, I knew she'd understand.
She kisses me and my heart stops, she asks me if I'll dance
And I said I'd love the chance

She tells me that I am the one that she's been looking for
I only hope that it is true.
And if I tell her that her image never leaves my mind
Will she say she loves me too?
