Bowling For Soup, Last Rock Show

Stand in line behind me We've got tons of time to Let it all hang out And cast the demons out.

Once we're in the roof falls I heard that we have got to raise it up

And let the fker burn.

And this is sure to take awhile But if we're going out, we're goin' out with style So we all jump around, and we fall to the ground Like it's the last rock show of our lives.
