

Bowling For Soup, Self-Centered

I got it stuck in a bind
I don't even know why It sucks to even try but I won't try anymore she took the afternoon train to find a different plane but life down the drain is better than being ignored

I think I'm taking a vacation now (I'm on holiday)
maybe I won't rest 'til I've thrown it all away I've got it down

gonna feel sorry for myself
I want to blame it on everyone else
I want to be self centered and make everybody feel sorry for me

Yeah

she sent a postcard again she said she had a new friend I hope that by the end he throws her heart on the floor she said he's really ok I really hope that he's gay it's not a nice thing to say but I don't care anymore

I think I'm taking a vacation now
(I'm on holiday)
maybe I won't rest 'til I've thrown it all away
I've got it down

I want to blame it on everyone else
I want to be self centered and make everybody feel sorry for me

gonna feel sorry for myself
I want to blame it on everyone else
I want to be self centered and make everybody feel sorry for me

My leg fell asleep 'cause you layed on it there's no reason to dwell on it it's just not worth it remember a year ago when we played in the snow now get out of my head (get out of my head)

I want to feel sorry for myself
I want to blame it on everyone else
I want to be self centered and make everybody feel sorry for me

gonna feel sorry for myself
I want to blame it on everyone else
I want to be self centered and make everybody feel sorry for me

feel sorry (sorry sorry) for me yeah, yeah, yeah
