Bowling For Soup, Shut Up And Smile

It's not the end of the world

In fact its not even the end of the summer

But thank god the tv is on Cuz theres no way we could know

Anything thats goin down

Or how were supposed to be feeling about it

I cant tell you how much I wish we could shut up and smile, yeah

Sail around the world and tell them all to keep singing it

la la la la la

all we needs a harmony and well convince the world to sing

la la la la la

throw your arms around someone (throw your arms around someone)

maybe spread a little love

I know it sounds a little dumb (or maybe Im a little drunk)

But all we need is some ice cream and a hug

Take a good look around

Does life really suck

Are we just complaining

I hope that this mic is on (testing 1, 2)

Cuz im on a roll here

I hope this is making some sense

I hope that youll throw up your hands and sing it

And tell all the haters that they should just shut up and smile, yeah

Sail around the world and tell them all to keep singing it

la la la la la

all we needs a harmony and well convince the world to sing

la la la la la

throw your arms around someone (throw your arms around someone)

maybe spread a little love

But all we need is some ice cream

All we need is love and beer

And old school metal and holiday cheer

TO be happy

(All you need is someone near) like ben and jerry

(to hold you close and pretend that they care) can we all just, get along now we found something that we all have in common now we can hold hands, do keg stands water skiing sounds great to me now

Sail around the world and tell them all to keep singing it

la la la la la

all we needs a harmony and well convince the world to sing

la la la la la

throw your arms around someone (throw your arms around someone)

maybe spread a little love

I know it sounds a little dumb (or maybe were a little drunk)

But all we need is some ice cream and a hug

(Chanting All we need is love and beer)

all we need is some ice cream and a hug
