

Bowling For Soup, Star Song

You got your tongue pierced once and you say you got another that you can't show anyone unless it's undercovers but you're running around showing everyone your new tatoo

You got an A in class and you hope no one would notice you're the smartest kid in school and it makes you self-conscious and your loser boyfriend is smoking out in the boys room I wish somone would tell you

(chorus)
You're a star the way you are you know you're not fooling anyone no you've got the eyes of an angel don't try to change em
everybody's got their scars (everybody's got their scars)
no matter what they tell ya you're beautiful the way you are

And your mom was so happy you became a cheerleader homecoming queen just like your older sister till you dyed your hair pink and they said what were you drinkin' and it never did sink in it dont matter what they think 'cuz

(chorus)
don't try to change em
everybody's got their scars (everybody's got thier scars) never mind how ugly they are

oh the way you are (oh the way you are)
oh the way you are
(oh the way you are)
oh the way you are (oh the way you are) yeah.....

(chorus)
don't try to change em
everybody's got their scars
(everybody's got thier scars)
never mind how ugly they are
