

Bowling For Soup, The Last Rock Show

The Last Rock Show

Stand in line behind me
We've got tons of time to Let it all hang out
And cast the demons out.

Once we're in the roof falls
I heard that we have got to raise it up
And let the fucker burn.

And this is sure to take awhile cause if we're going out, we're goin' out with style
So we all jump around, and we fall to the ground
Like it's the last rock show of our lives.
