

Bowling For Soup, Thespian

I met her just today
But I've seen her before and now I sit beside her When she told me her name
I said "that's my favorite song" and she said she's never heard it

She broke my train of thought when she told me a secret the one about her friend now I felt her hand upon my knee
I guess I forgot to breathe
But only for a moment

Chorus
All the While I'm thinkin that I can't believe she's here with me now I might be dreamin if I am don't tell me I don't want to know

She got up to get a beer so I moved closer to her chair and she pretended not to notice I hope she doesn't leave cause I'd like to talk some more before I have to go now

Chorus

I guess my talk was just too small I am not getting anywhere but, I've been here before so I'll just drive home by myself and drift away to sleep
I guess it's no big deal
BIG DEAL

They finally closed the doors so I walked her to her car and the rain began to pour and with a smile she said good bye and I watched her drive away I guess I lost again now!!

Chorus
