

Boy George, Happy Family

Happy ever after
That's the story that you're told
When you're young, your mother says it's so
But when you hear them fight
In your bedroom late at night
You wonder does she really know

Can't you see
This ain' t the way it's supposed to be
Mother father sister brother
Happy family

Can't you see
I hate the way that you talk to me
Mother father sister brother
Happy family

Jealousy and laughter
Noone ever told you why, oh why
But they stay together always do or die
When he looks at you
Just do as I say not as I do
No wonder that your anger, anger grows

Can't you see
This ain' t the way it's supposed to be
Mother father sister brother
Happy family

Can't you see
I play no part of your misery
Mother father sister brother
Happy family

Can't you see, can't you see?

(mother father sister brother)
(happy family)

When you hear them fight
In your bedroom late at night
You wonder does she really know, no

Can't you see
This ain' t the way it's supposed to be
Mother father sister brother
Happy family

Can't you see
I play no part of your misery
Mother father sister brother
Happy family
