

Boy George, Why Go?

Don't go
I didn't know you'd be here
And I wasn't into come
I'd be sitting watching TV
If there was anything decent on
If I'd missed the taxi
Or found nothing good to wear
But for some uncertain reason
Some strange uncertain reason
This is how it all
It all begun
Why go
Why go
When you could stay a while
Why go
Why go
When you could stay a while
If I made some coffee
Would you sit and talk some more
I know words are usually pointless
When you've used them all before
The way your smile fills the room
Stay a while
Kick of you shoes
DonOt go
Please stay
It always happened this way
Why go
Why go
When you could stay a while
Why go
Why go
When you could stay a while
The way your smile fills the room
Stay a while
What's there to loose?
The way you laugh
When I say
DonOt go
Please stay
Why go
Why go
When you could stay a while
Why go
Why go
When you could stay a while
When you could stay with me - tonight
Tonight
