

Boy Hits Car, Mr. Loh

Mr Loh singing

As I can see the ocean breaking
The ocean breaks on her self
It will remind me that all the shit I'm feeling will soon be will be alright

Its gonna be alright
Mr. Loh he finds the water
And it seems to wash this place off
As the dolphins jump and play
He speaks to us in the sand
Do you know the meaning of life
Or are you just a simple man
And then he swims away

Then he swims away
Mr. Loh will you speak to me
You're the only one I understand
Mr. Loh will you sing to me
You're the only one who makes sense
Mr. Loh's not afraid to be naked
But some men fall from grace
They're not secure with themselves
He doesn't measure people
By things we consider important
Can't seem to comprehend today
So he swims away

He swims away

Come back

Mr. Loh will you speak to me
You're the only one I understand
Mr. Loh will you sing to me
You're the only one who makes sense

*Mr Loh talking:

contact with nature, now thats very important
All in society is so busy, busy, busy, busy
Not much time

Talk to yourself or talk to the nature*
As long as I can see the ocean break on her self
As the dolphins jump and play
It will remind me, that all the shit I'm feeling
Will soon be alright

Mr. Loh will you speak to me
You're the only one I understand
Mr. Loh will you sing to me
You're the only one who makes sense

Oh Mr. Loh

Oh Mr. Loh

This is gonna be alright

Mr. Loh singing again
