

Boyce Avenue, All the while

I dont know what made us lose our way
We said some things we thought wed never say
It never did come easy
I always fought for what felt right
Cause youre the one I want here in my life

Hold on
All the while just thinking about now
In time were gonna see how this works out

We just need a place where we can hide
To try and find some reason in our lives
You know it never did come easy
Ill keep on doing what feels right
Cause youre the one I need here in my life

Hold on
All the while just thinking about now
In time were gonna see how this works out
Let go of what you fear and
Hold on to what youre losing
Cause I cant do this on my own

No I cant do this on my own

Hold on
All the while just thinking about now
In time were gonna see how this works out
Let go of what you fear and
Hold on to what youre losing
Cause I cant do this on my own
I see the beauty within
Dont want to lose you again
Cause thats a pain only you know

Il the while just thinking about now
In time were gonna see how this works out
