

Boyce Avenue, Hear me now

It wasn't always this feeling
Put out the world for a tear in your eye
Oh god I'm over here kneeling
It seems we're fighting for truth with a lie
I'm falling over the edge with you
You're falling over the edge with me
With me
Sometimes I wish it was easy
To leave the ones that we love behind
Oh god just help me believe it
Still so much harder to say goodbye
I'm falling over the edge with you
You're falling over the edge with me
With me
Oh
Can you hear me now
You got me standing here pleading
Won't you please help me keep this alive
I'm falling over the edge with you
You're falling over the edge with me
With me
Oh
Can you hear me now
