

BoyWithUke, Before I Die

Alright. One and two and three and four and

One month left, my doctor shakes his head
He don't look so good, he should just rest
Trying hard not to vomit on my bed
He says I should say goodbye to all my friends

Before I die
Need a little bit, I just need a little bit more
Before I die
I just wanna be rich, I don't wanna die poor
Before I die
I want to marry her, and then I want a divorce
Before I die
I don't wanna die young, I just wanna live more

Let's just keep on staying up past two
I still see cigarettes by your shoes
When are we going to the zoo?
Bitch, when the fuck we leaving?
There's so many things that I want to do with you

Before I die
Need a little bit, I just need a little bit more
Before I die
I just wanna be rich, I don't wanna die poor
Before I die
I want to marry her, and then I want a divorce
Before I die
I don't wanna die young, I just wanna live more

Bitch
Take me back to Tokyo
Can you take me where I want to go?

Before I die
Need a little bit, I just need a little bit more
Before I die
I just wanna be rich, I don't wanna die poor
Before I die
I want to marry her, and then I want a divorce
Before I die
I don't wanna die young, I just wanna live more
