Boyz II Men, Gonna Have

A chick always knows what you're goin do From the minute they say hi To giving of their number From the moment they reply

So don't ever think you've got the upper hand On believing running games Cause your games been peeped even before you're speakin Offer her your name Cause you'll have her like

[Chorus]

Ooohhh...all giddy she'll be like...ooohhh They know they're gonna have sex with you...sex with you They know from the gate how long they're gonna wait Man I hear them talk'n and the minute you walk in they know They're gonna have sex with you...sex with you If it's the last thing they ever do

See it ain't about the jewels Or how much dough you got Not even bout the car you drive But it's the feelin she gets When you spit the right shit You can tell by the look in her eye

So at dinner when you kick it And you're tryin to figure out if she's gonna give you some

As long as you stay fresh and you're not acting pressed Most of all don't say nothing dumb and you'll have her like

[Chorus]

Make sure you say all the things that keeps smile on her face Don't be too cool to express yourself Even though it might not be your way If you're around your crew and you happen to do something special Don't be afraid to tell her it's you And you won't regret it So next time your tryin to find the lines Or a clever thing to say Just be yourself and no one else Cause your gonna get it anyway

All the ladies if you hear us say yeah Real soft like yeah And if you feel us let me hear you say yeah

Cause we're up on the game that you're playin We know what you're sayin' They know they're gonna have sex with you See they already decided They're just tryin to hide it from you

[Adlib]
